Welcome to Pioneer Memorial Presbyterian Church

Order of Worship for December 24, 2020

Welcome

The Christ Candle

The Graves Family

Christmas has come! Christ is here! Time to enjoy whatever the day has brought us, time to reach out and show God's love to all around us.

We light this Christ candle because God is With Us.

We light it because words cannot adequately express that Christ is the light that banishes all darkness from our world and our hearts.

Light the Christ candle

Prayer: O Lord who casts out our deepest darkness and lights our way to the future, who brings the gift of joy to the brokenhearted and warmth to a cold world, burn brightly in our hearts, our church, our city, and our world today. Amen.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "Angels from the Realms of Glory". It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one flat (Bb) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are printed between the staves. The first system contains the first four lines of the hymn, and the second system contains the remaining four lines. The music is written in a simple, accessible style suitable for congregational singing.

now pro-claim Mes-si-ah's birth:
 you-der shines the in-fant light: come and wor-ship,
 you have seen his na-tal star:
 to the e-ter-nal Three in One:

come and wor-ship, wor-ship Christ, the new-born king!

Scripture Lesson

Luke 2:1-20

¹ In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ² This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³ All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴ Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵ He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶ While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷ And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. ⁸ In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹ Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰ But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹ to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹² This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." ¹³ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, [2] praising God and saying, ¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he loves. ¹⁵ When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶ So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷ When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸ and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

While Isaac Watts did not write this text strictly for Christmas use, he did purposely cast his paraphrase of Psalm 98:4-9 in Christian terms, titling it "The Messiah's coming and kingdom." So "the Lord" here is Jesus Christ, rather than the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
